TCULAeahAiC9nvurUzxvusGRLD2JxoY5Yw,

as described in the Motion, was used as an instrumentality to commit a felony and the property is a monetary instrument and that the continued seizure of the property is appropriate and is the least restrictive means to protect against disposal, waste, and continued illegal use; therefore, it is

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that any claimant desiring to contest the forfeiture of said property shall file a responsive pleading and affirmative defenses within twenty (20) days after receiving a copy of the Complaint and this Order.

Failure to file any such pleading or defenses within twenty (20) days from the date of receipt of this Order will entitle the Petitioner to a default pursuant to Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.500.

DONE AND ORDERED in Fort Lauderdale, Broward County, Florida on May 20, 2025.

Keathan B. Frink Circuit Court Judge
